

FROM THE PRESIDENT

Dear Members,

Like many Irvington Club families, Cathy and I housed out-of-state players during the adidas Open. Bo and Lane Leschly, two brothers from northern California who now play for Harvard and who have never been to Portland, spent four nights in our home. In a fun twist, they arrived in time for the Pro-Am but were not selected to play in it so they watched Cathy play and they sat on the side lines and cheered her on. The next day, and for the rest of the tournament, we were their loyal fans.

It was interesting to watch Lane and Bo walk through the club for the first time. They gravitated toward the trophy case and were amazed at the dates on the trophies. It was fun to tell them about our club and its role in maintaining this tournament in Portland. I have to admit, I felt proud.

Lane and Bo both played singles and doubles. Lane went deeper in the tournament than Bo but they were done on Friday night and stuck around on Saturday to play some mixed doubles at Grant High with Cathy and me. That was an unexpected treat!

We asked Lane if they played in a lot of these tournaments and if their club hosted an open event. His comments suggested to us that the members at their home town club did not want to give up court time to host this type of event, and I'm sure that's true with many clubs.

I have to admit that now that I'm back on the courts after an injury break, it was not easy to watch mostly strangers using the courts. But when the weekend was over, I realized it was well worth it. I hope everyone enjoyed watching Irvington Club favorites like Joey Schwartz, Mike Tammen, Jeff Harvey and Adam Rothert, along with our pros, go head-to-head with players on the pro circuit and college hot shots. I know I did!

Ultimately, two touring pros made it to the men's finals, with Mike Pervolarakis taking the title. Recent Arizona State University grad Cali Jankowski won the women's division. Amazing tennis right here at Irvington and we don't often get a chance to see top rated players on our courts.

I do want to offer a sincere thank you to all Irvington Club members, to all sponsors, to the employees who worked tirelessly to make it all work, and to Barb, Cris, and Walter, who worked late nights, early mornings, and all hours in between, to put on this successful event. Your hard work is greatly appreciated.

Amy

FROM THE GENERAL MANAGER

Dear Members,

We have had a great start to our summer season. Our tennis and swim programs are in full swing and as I am writing this, I know our summer will be gone in a flash. Which is all the more reason to come out and enjoy all of the happenings at the Club!

The adidas Open: WOW! Some really amazing tennis was on display last week and I hope you had a chance to enjoy it. A big "Thank You" to all of our sponsors and to the members that housed some of the players during the tournament as this really helps get the top-level players here. Also, thanks for coming out and watching, as the players love spectators and cheerleaders. Last, but not least, nice job to Walter and Cris and thanks to my team for all of their extra work to make it all happen.

Coming Up:

Reminder - There are no prime time hours for courts

Swim Team Home Meet - Saturday, June 30th at 9:15am

Annual Club BBQ - Thursday, July 19th at 5:30pm

Ladies Night at the Pool - Monday, July 30th

It is time that we bid a fond farewell to front desk staff members Emily, Ben and Alex. Emily is heading to new adventures across the country, Ben has an internship and Alex is teaching more and more tennis. They are all positive moves, but I sure will miss all of them. Help me welcome Brenda Moore, who will be taking Emily's shift, and Cam Mitchell, who will be taking Ben and Alex's shift. Both are very familiar with the Club and I am sure will fit right in.

We would also like to welcome Katie Guyot as a new front desk sub staff member. Please say hello and introduce yourself next time you see someone new at the front desk so they can get to know our great members.

As always, looking forward to seeing you here at our wonderful Club!

Barbara
