President's Message

Close your eyes for just a moment. Imagine the Irvington club tournaments. What comes to mind? The late-night raffles? The enchiladas/baked potato bar/jerk chicken? The theme nights? Or is it the chatter in the stands.

We come for the tennis, for sure, but we stay for the fun. We stay for the magic.

The beauty about magic is that you never think about the magician. You watch the nickel disappear, the lady get chopped in two. But who makes it happen? I don't know?

As many of you know, starting in 2012 Ron Selis became the informal enhancer of all things fun when it came to club tournaments. He bought a magic wand and poof, he was formally the head of the fun committee. More fun. More enhancements. The kick-off party and skills test competition. He was the magician.

Ron is quick to recognize that Barb and the Pros do the lion's share of the work when it comes to club tournaments. "It is like a three headed monster. Barb shops and cooks and organizes and does all the leg work to make sure we have food and drinks for theme nights. The pros are up late and early and work all day running the tournament, and I just try to enhance the fun part."

Ron lead a team of crazy writers who attempted to capture every match played. That meant, for Ron, teeth all day, playing a match or two himself, and then watching and writing about as many as 42 matches in one full day of tennis. And while Ron had a pack of writers, he authored more than 80 writeups himself. Perhaps most incredible, Barb, Walter, Cris and Ron create this magic for two weeks in the summer and 10 days in the winter. No other club in Portland matches these tournaments in duration or fun.

Before stepping aside, Ron had one more act. He stood in front of the bleachers on court one, took off his top hat and set it on the ball box. Ron focused on the rabbit in the hat, tossed in some tennis balls and knee-socks, said abracadabra, and poof. But the rabbit just looked back at him, all whiskers, crooked teeth, and sly grin. Ron waved his wand again, but as he did so Ron could feel himself get lanky and tall, his hair turning dark, and suddenly he was wearing the knee-socks. The rabbit looked at the audience and said, "and we shall call him Willis."

Take a well-deserved bow Ron. You will be a hard act to follow.

-Amy Alpen

Notes From the General Manager

Dear Irvington Club Members,

Lots of great events will be happening at our Club:

- Mixed Doubles Tournament January 25-February 2
- ♦ Electing New Board Members Ballots mailed out Jan. 28th
Ballots due Feb. 15th
- Annual Meeting/Party Saturday, February 23rd

The construction project is finally nearing completion. We will be power-washing and doing some painting after the tournament. I really appreciate everyone's patience and understanding during the project.

League play is in full swing and we rely on our captains to confirm matches and stay on time as best you can. Please limit the warmups to 10 minutes, as we often have matches back to back.

I am looking forward lots of fun events and of course, seeing you here at the Club!

-Barbara

GREAT VOLUNTEER OPPORTUNITY

The Community Outreach Committee has found a great, limited volunteer opportunity for ITC members. "T Is For Tennis" is a group that has developed a program to work with Head Start children ages 3-5 to provide tennis related activities in the classrooms. No specific training is necessary. You would assist with drills which help develop the kids' swing, volley and movement at six stations. The time commitments will be from 1 to 3 hours, during school.

The dates and locations are:

- Clarendon in N. Portland on Thursdays April 11, 18, and 25; and
- Grout in SE Portland on Tuesdays, April 16, 23, and 30.

For more info you can contact Jim Lang: 503 781-1401; jim@pdxlaw.com. You can also review the website for "T Is For Tennis" and the Greater Portland Tennis Council.
