

Farewell to Marty Bottler

After 30 years at the Club, Marty Bottler moved from his apartment upstairs to Avamere at Sandy. We had a gathering with coffee and pastries to bid Marty farewell. Goodbye Marty, we will miss you!

GM Notes

As we fast approach a New Year, my Team and I are busy planning many Club activities. The Pros are working on the upcoming Junior Club Tournament (January 5-8, 2023) presented by Big League Chew Bubblegum.

Board Elections are fast approaching, so you will be receiving a slate of candidates, followed by bios and other information.

Our Pros are also planning the Mixed Doubles Tournament (February 5-13, 2023).

Our annual Meeting/Party finally returns after a two-year hiatus due to COVID. Mark your calendars for Saturday, February 25th. More details will be forthcoming.

Early March we start interviewing for lifeguards. If your child is interested, make sure they get their Red Cross certification. We have applications at the front desk. I am thrilled to announce Paul Garboczi will be returning as our Pool Manager and Swim Team Coach.

Thank you to those who were able to attend Marty's gathering. I know the inclement weather had a huge impact on attendance, but he was very grateful to those who braved the weather conditions.

Our Club is vibrant and full of activity. I hope you are finding more things to do here, which means we will see you more often.

Also, don't forget you can check in with your phone or your key fob.

Wishing you and your family a healthy, safe and wonderful New Year!

Barbara

President's Message

Happy New Year!

As we begin 2023 the Board of Trustees has a full agenda this month with an upcoming Club Survey for all members, an election with a slate of outstanding candidates, and the very important work and responsibility to hire a new General Manager (GM). Jonathan Steinhoff and I are co-chairing the steering committee for the search committee and are joined by BOT members Jenny MacNichol and Leslie Sampson and members Adam Gamboa and Lisa Lynch and staff member Anita Palodichuk. The plan is to continue to keep members informed as we progress with the process that will include involving members to assist with the different stages of the process.

Communication and transparency remain very important to me so I thank those of you who share or email me comments, suggestions, and ideas. And in turn, I would like to communicate to each of you the hope that you all will enjoy a healthy year ahead with many more wins on and off the courts and the determination to stick with any of your new year's resolutions!

Thank you for your support and involvement,

Stephanie, boardpresident@irvingtonclub.com

Book Discussion—“Always Outnumbered, Always Outgunned”

Please join member Breon Gardner on Tuesday, January 24th for a discussion of the book “Always Outnumbered, Always Outgunned” by Walter Mosley. The discussion will be in the upstairs lounge starting at 7pm.

“Always Outnumbered, Always Outgunned” is available at the library as a physical book and as a digital book through kindle or an audio book through audible. For those who prefer movies, you can watch it on YouTube or Amazon starring Laurence Fishburne! Don't miss it!

MLK School Wish List Gift Drive

Thanks to a fabulous and very generous Club! Thank you to the more than 60 members who pitched in, joined with others or with their City League team to shop, wrap, wait on shipments and place all their gifts for 15 families at Dr. Martin Luther King, Jr. Elementary School Christmas under the Club tree (see photo). I so appreciate the Community Involvement Committee's support and help along with the other members who helped pack up and deliver the huge volume of presents. I'd like to thank in particular Mary Stevenson, Jim Lang, Gary and Chris Haug-Chin, Patty Linde, Shelley Stoffer, Barb Ferre, Cathy Porter, Ann Reno and Jen Woods who helped me get the gifts to the school.

Thank you once again for supporting our larger community and being a part of making The Irvington Club the best it can be!

Stephanie

Gingerbread House Decorating Party

On December 11th, The Social Committee hosted a Gingerbread House Decorating Party in the ballroom. It was a fun time full of holiday cheer with family and friends.

Ladies White Elephant Event

The annual Ladies White Elephant Event was wonderful. There was a bump drill followed by a gift exchange potluck. It was a great time!
